

Troy Cooperative Preschool Communications Release

From time to time, teachers and/or parents may take pictures of your child in class, on field trips or during other school activities.

We like to post these pictures in our classroom, and sometimes we include them in the school newsletter.

On occasion, a local newspaper or other community group may like to use a photo to profile our school.

Please sign below, indicating your authorization to allow the use of any picture that may be taken of your child.
